THE HALIFAX BRIDGE OF CONCRETE.

Representative Alexander Wants To Meet People Of Daytona, Seabreeze, Daytona Beach

NAME A TIME AND PLACE.

Representative Jas. E. Alexander hasn't forgotten that a trio of the prettiest and best towns on the East Coast are in dire need of a big, modern, artistic, pleasing concrete bridge, with graceful arches and overhanging sidewalks, built to withstand the storms and wear of ages, is the chief need, the sine qua non, and Mr. Alexander desires an opportunity to discuss the question personally with the people of this district.

Looking toward such meeting, Mr. Alexander addresses the editor of the Daily News as follows:
"Please say to the good people of Daytona, Seabreeze and Daytona Beach that I would like to meet them at any time and place between now and April 1, and discuss with them the free bridge proposition, which I hope and expect the next Legislature to give them."

"I shall do everything in my power to accomplish the above result. The people of the East Coast have a friend in me, and I shall do everything possible for their prosperity and advantage."
Yours truly,
"J. E. ALEXANDER."

It is less than two weeks now till April 1st. Wouldn't it be a good idea for those interested in the concrete bridge scheme to get together, name a time and place, and communicate with Mr. Alexander at once?

There are others, likely, beside Mr. Alexander, who would be glad of the opportunity of discussing the bridge question before their fellows.

By all means bring the Representative over; he'll do you good, and a whiff of ocean air and the sight of your fliers, both terrestrial and aerial, will do him good. The opportunity for the exchange of such reciprocal enjoyments should not be missed.

CARLETON AT PALMETTO CLUB

All hearts warm at the memory of Joseph Jefferson, the great actor, whose geniality on and off the stage was one of his great charms, and how fitting is the proposed monument to his memory. It is for this worthy cause that W. T. Carleton, the eminent operatic baritone, whose name is a household word from Maine to California, will give a song recital at the Palmetto Club on Saturday evening, 20th inst., consisting of Irish, Scotch, English and Welsh songs and a selection from the Barrack Room Ballads of Rudyard Kipling set to music by Walter Damrosch, and other eminent musicians. Mr. Carleton will also recite an original poem by Joseph Jefferson and tell anecdotes of his stage career, ending with the best words he spoke in the character of "Rip." Tickets $1.00 each, on sale at Hankins' drug store.

The Lyceum Comedy Company, after completing the week here will remove to Daytona Beach, where they will play all of next week, having secured the privilege of erecting their tent on a lot on Grandview, just north of Seabreeze avenue. This tent, which is a new one, they will then have thoroughly waterproofed, in case of rain, and they will also add their two thirty-foot extensions to the tent which they have not been able to use here, giving them a seating capacity of 1,000.

Last night they played "Kit Carson" to a large and appreciative audience, while tonight they will give that old, but still new story of "East Lynne." Friday night they will put on a three-act musical comedy entitled, "How Wives Fool Their Husbands."

The seating capacity of the tent has been somewhat increased, and they have made preparations to warm the tent if the weather continues cool enough to require it.

"As I am compelled to build my new hotel elsewhere, I offer my property located in Seabreeze, Fla., at bargain prices. See Conrad Real Estate Agency. E. L. Potter."

AMENDING THE CONSTITUTION.

—Macaulay in New York World.

NO VERDICT IS EXPECTED.

[By United Press]

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 18.—Failing to reach an agreement after twenty-four hours the jury in the Cooper-Sharp murder case reported to Judge Hart this morning that they were so divided that a verdict is hardly likely. The Court announced his intention of keeping them together for a week or two in the hope of reaching a verdict.

As eleven of the jury are farmers and the time for spring work near, the court's determination may influence an early verdict. Should the verdict be adverse to the defendants the court's action may be a vital issue in the appeal that is sure to be taken.

DETECTIVE ASSAULTED.

BUFFALO, N. Y., March 18.—Louis Schambo, assistant chief of detectives for the Pennsylvania Railroad, was set upon early today by three men and terribly beaten. The hospital surgeons believe him to be fatally hurt.

WILL GO TO DAYTONA BEACH

[By United Press]

NEW YORK, March 18.—It is believed here that the conflicting interviews given out by Harriman, at Pasadena, Cal. last night had for their purpose of discovering what effect a report of his retirement would have on Wall Street. If a flurry is not too widespread it is predicted Harriman will soon make a positive declaration of his retirement from active railroad work.

Another shipment of the famous Ideal Hair brushes just in.

GOLFING YET, SO THEY SAY.

[By United Press]

Editor Daily News: In your paper of the 16th you ask "has the season closed at Palm Beach?" Far be it from closing, for it has been and is one of the best seasons Palm Beach has ever had, and there are still enough people in one hotel at Palm Beach to fill up everything in Daytona, and with the finale of the Florida championship at golf, other sports open, such as tennis, fishing, yachting, motor boat racing, etc.

There are many left at Palm Beach who are waiting for the Daytona boat Constitution, which, like the town, is too small to take care of those here who would like to see Daytona before returning home. SIDNEY MADDOCK.

[Florida could use more boosters of the Maddock type. Glad to be assured that there is still good Yankee picking at P. B. Right you are that there are people enough in one hotel to fill up Daytona. It has kept Daytona guessing for some time to house the surging throngs of people who want to see the "prettiest city in Florida" without borrowing from her delightful neighbor on the south. If you could have seen the look of despair on faces as they drove from hotel to hotel to be informed "full house," you would agree that Daytona's season was to the good. Watch Daily News columns for notices of enlarged facilities for next season. Editor Daily News.]

HARRIMAN TO RETIRE?

[By United Press]

WASHINGTON, March 18.—The middle of June is generally predicted today as the time when the Payne Tariff Bill may reach President Taft for his signature.

Among the democrats, some cuts are so radical, a "joker" is looked for in the bill. Among the republicans many expressions of disapproval of the proposed cuts are heard, and a flood of amendments are expected from that source.

The general debate will begin Monday, and the progress depends largely on the attitude of the democrats, as all, even Leader Champ Clark, were kept in complete ignorance of the bill before it was introduced by Payne. Their plan of campaign is not yet determined.

Jeremiah B. Beecher died this morning at about four o'clock, of heart trouble, at his winter home on south Ridgewood avenue. Mr. Beecher had not been in good health for some weeks, but was not confined to the house, being about the city as usual only a few days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Beecher, who are from New York, have been coming to Daytona during the winter for many years and a few years since erected a comfortable winter home on south Ridgewood avenue.

Their daughter and her husband Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scoop, who have been with them during the winter, departed only last Saturday for their Brooklyn home, but may be intercepted by telegraph at Savannah and return.

HIGH SCHOOL VOTES HEAVY

The count of Wednesday evening in the Bush and Safford piano contest showed a remarkable vote, nearly 130,000 by the Daytona High School, while the Elks for the first time fell down, the Halifax Rifles stretching the lead they already have on the Antlered Herd. The Colored Industrial school had an unusually large vote, about 24,000.

Outside of Daytona the Wilma's Opera House had its usual large vote, while both the Kingston and Seabreeze schools voted fairly heavy, the Seabreeze school being now in second place again.

"JOKER" FOR TARIFF BILL?

J. B. BEECHER PASSES AWAY.

WATER WORKS MAKING PROGRESS.

Bond Trustees Hold Session But Little Of Public Interest Transacted.

BONDS ARE TO BE SENT SOON.

The Bond Trustees held a meeting yesterday to pass upon certain business pertaining to the bond issue. There is no hitch anywhere in any of the proceedings. When you consider that Daytona is on the Southeast Atlantic, that the W. R. Compton Company, who were the successful bidders, are in the West, and that in all such transactions the "East" is necessarily reckoned with, and that there is almost endless "red tape," the public will let patience do her perfect work.

You will have better idea of the situation by reading a telegram received yesterday by Secretary F. N. Conrad: "I understand bonds were shipped yesterday. Full instructions regarding execution." Signed, W. R. Compton.

A letter, also received yesterday, states that the company are doing all they can to hasten the delivery of the water works bonds. The treasurer of the company, Thos. N. Dysart, writes, sending the usual identification certification receipt for payment of purchase price, etc., with instructions to forward same to New York, when the bonds are executed and returned to the United States Mortgage and Trust Company for certification.

The bonds will be forthcoming in the next few days.

AN INVITATION TO NEIGHBORS.

The Racing Committee of the Automobile Club desire to extend to Ormond as well as Seabreeze and Daytona Beach an invitation to join in the automobile parade announced for Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from the City Hall.

Get busy now and plan for the decorations for this spectacular feature of the races will be one of the most interesting events of the carnival week.

The Halifax River Bridge Company has generously announced that their bridge is free for the parade and you need not bother about your pocket change. Just drape out in flying colors and join the procession.

Take the precaution to send in your name to Chairman White of the racing committee and he will give you a number and assign you a position in the parade.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY ENTERTAINMENTS

In Which Bridge, Five Hundred, Etcetera, Were Happy Features.

SOME DECIDED SOCIAL EVENTS.

Among the most enjoyable social entertainments of the season the bridge party and luncheon, given yesterday by Mrs. Galen B. Seamen, at the delightful Seamen home, on South Ridgewood, was one of the most successful of the good cheer and engrossing interest.

The charming hostess arranged six tables, bridge being the game, and the guests entered into the engaging pastime with an enthusiasm quite inspiring and contagious.

The first favor, a bunch of long-stemmed pansies, was justly awarded to Mrs. A. B. Foster; while the second favor, a bunch of violets, was captured by Mrs. A. H. Kling.

At one o'clock the guests were regaled with a delightful luncheon which was thoroughly enjoyed by everybody. The colors were green.

MRS. MURRAY B. AULTMAN.

Mrs. M. B. Aultman charmingly entertained yesterday afternoon from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock. Her reception rooms were exquisite in decorations befitting the day and there was a distinctive spring-like air about it all.

Mrs. Aultman chose as her diversion "500," and she made the afternoon speed as on wings so well did she plan and carry out the little program.

Each guest was presented a green flag and shamrock as favors.

The first prize fell to Mrs. J. D. C. Morris, while Mrs. M. B. Church was the lucky winner of the second.

The afternoon was pronounced one of the pleasant social events of the present season and Mrs. Aultman has placed her friends under renewed obligations for the St. Patrick Day entertainment with its refreshments so delightfully served.

MRS. E. L. POTTER.

One of the prettiest entertainments of the day and one that will linger long in the memory of the happy participants was a reception tendered her friends yesterday by Mrs. E. L. Potter, of Ocean boulevard, Seabreeze.

The reception was in honor of Mesdames P. H. Ingalls, of Hartford, Conn., and A. H. Imbusch, of Milwaukee, Wis.

Mrs. Potter received her friends at the Country Club, an ideal place for such a function, and the afternoon was all the charming hostess and her friends could ask for, everything conspiring to make the occasion the most pleasant.

EDWARD P. WESTON, FAMOUS PEDESTRIAN.

Edward Payson Weston, the veteran pedestrian, celebrated his seventy-first birthday by beginning a 4,000 mile walk. Weston's idea is to walk from New York city to the Pacific coast, believing that he can cover the distance in a hundred days.
